Commodore Report:

Well it's a tough life extending the boating season in Myrtle Beach. I now have time to do all the work on my boat I kept putting off. I've been sanding, cleaning, bleaching (bighting), the teak on the fly bridge, steps to the fly bridge, cockpit, and of course the swim platform. So going south isn't all the fun in the sun, it's like working in the sun with some fun! At least my boat will be ready for cruising when it's returns in to Maryland in April. I'm looking to Sonny's cruise schedule.

I would like to give a big THANK YOU to Sonny for filling in for me at the January meeting. I hear he did a great job!

Vice Commodore Report:

Well here I am in roughing it for the winter in Myrtle Beach. I spend my days trying to master Sudoku, taking in the beautiful waterfront view from our condo, reading, doing crafts, or just walking the beach with Fred and Angel, which I do almost everyday. I am looking forward to taking our boat out for some fun cruising days on the intercostals waterway this coming week. Next month we will be in Florida for the Miami Boat show and visiting family, then back to Myrtle Beach until we need to come home for a Ball on March 1st. Looking forward to seeing many of you on our first cruising trip.
